WIZZ AIR ANNOUNCES THE NEW SKI ROUTE
TURIN-ST. PETERSBURG
A FLIGHT EVERY SATURDAY FROM DECEMBER 2020
The company continues to invest in Torino Airport

Caselle Torinese, July, 14 2020 – Wizz Air, the main low-cost airline in Central and Eastern Europe, today announces the expansion of its network from Turin with a new ski route to and from St. Petersburg. The flights will be operated from 19 December 2020 every Saturday until March 2021, with fares starting from 19.99 euros* and tickets on sale from today.

The departure from St. Petersburg is scheduled at 2:35 pm and arrival in Turin at 4:10 pm; the departure from Turin is instead scheduled at 4:40 pm, with arrival in the Russian destination at 9:55 pm.

The connection is designed in an incoming perspective for the target of skiers and will contribute to increasing the number of winter sports enthusiasts from the Russian market, who reach the ski destinations in the North Western Alps. The new flight will also be available to Piedmontese who decide to take this opportunity of direct service to St. Petersburg to visit an appealing tourist destination.

"We are very satisfied with the launch of the new route announced by Wizz Air to and from St. Petersburg - commented Andrea Andorno, CEO of Torino Airport -: an excellent sign of restart for the 2020-2021 winter season".

THE NEW ROUTE FROM TURIN

Route	Operation	Starting date	Fares from
St. Petersburg, Russia	Saturdays	December, 19 2020	19,99 €*

Wizz Air increases its network from Turin: the new route to Tirana will debut on July 16, while the new connection to Iasi will start on August 3. In the winter season 2020-2021 there will be therefore 7 destinations by Wizz Air from Torino Airport: in addition to St. Petersburg, Tirana and Iasi, the carrier will also connect Piedmont with Chisinau (in Moldova), Bacau and Bucharest (in Romania), and for winter Warsaw (in Poland).

* one-way fare, including administration fees. One piece of hand luggage (max: 40x20x30 cm) is included. Each checked bag is subject to an additional fee. The price only applies to bookings made on the wizzair.com website and on the WIZZ app. The number of places is limited.
